

State Income Tax Withholding Form

Important:

- If your state of residence is different than the state in your mailing address, complete Part 2 of this form so that we can apply the appropriate state income tax withholding rules.
- If you are a resident of AK, FL, NH, NV, SD, TN, TX, WA or WY, we cannot apply state withholding as these states do not have personal income tax laws. Do not complete this form unless Part 2 applies.
- If you are a resident of CA, ME, MI or OR and you do not make a state withholding election or you do not make an election for “no state withholding,” we will apply state withholding.
- If you are a resident of GA and you are receiving a partial distribution, lump sum distribution, required minimum distribution or hardship withdrawal, and you do not make a state withholding election, we will not apply state withholding.
- If you are a resident of GA and you are receiving cash installments or a term annuity lasting for periods of 10 years or more or a life annuity, and you do not make a state withholding election, or you do not make an election for “no state withholding,” we will apply state withholding.
- If you are a resident of AR, CT, DE, IA, KS, MA, MD<sup>5</sup>, NC, NE, OK, VA or VT, and you do not make a state withholding election or you do not make an election for “no state withholding,” we will apply state withholding on your distribution if Part 3 or 5 applies. State withholding is mandatory on your distribution if Part 4 applies.
- If you are a resident of the District of Columbia and you are receiving a lump sum distribution, we will apply state withholding.
- If you are a resident of MS and you are receiving a distribution that would qualify as an early distribution with no known exception as defined in Internal Revenue Code Section 72, we will apply state withholding.
- If you are a resident of any state other than those listed above, we will not apply state withholding. Do not complete this form unless Part 2 applies.

For more information, check with your state department of revenue or a tax advisor.

Part 6 – Signature

Signature _____ Date _____

<sup>1</sup> If you have multiple annuities and/or installments, you can only make one withholding election in either Part 3 or Part 4, not both. This withholding election will be applied to all of your annuities and/or installment payments.

<sup>2</sup> If you are a resident of Georgia or Kansas, the default is no state income tax withholding. If you want to withhold state income tax, indicate the dollar amount you want withheld.

<sup>3</sup> If you are a resident of the District of Columbia, state income tax withholding is only applicable to lump sum distributions.

<sup>4</sup> If you are a resident of Mississippi, state income tax withholding is only applicable to early distributions with no known exception as defined in Internal Revenue Code Section 72.

<sup>5</sup> If you are a resident of Maryland, state income tax withholding does not apply to required minimum distributions and hardship withdrawals.
