

Rationale: Remove out-of-date language that requires a proportional relationship between conference apportionment of pension/benefits costs and pastors' salaries, which does not comport with current practices. Flexibility for annual conferences reflected in ¶621 is clear and should not be limited.