

Rationale: To help assure transparency, availability of information for potential and current investors, and compliance with applicable laws and regulations, Wespath and GCFA, and their related companies, are encouraged, as Church fiduciaries, to strive to meet investment adviser best practices in disclosure and reporting to the extent practicable.