

Rationale: Provides a framework for handling of plan eligibility and pension/benefit obligations in the event annual conferences or groups of local churches disaffiliate from the UMC; such obligations and related funding will be assigned equitably and prudently, in a manner that protects clergy pensions without imposing financial hardship on disaffiliating groups.