

Rationale: Wespeth and The United Methodist Publishing House do not receive general church apportionments, or have representation on the committee on personnel policies and practices; they should be excluded from audit and review of pay equity data by GCFA. These agencies self-report pay equity and publish certain compensation information annually.